

qa

1. What tag is used to create a form? Name it's attributes.

Ans: The `<form></form>` tag is used to create a form. It's attributes are action, target and method.

2. "Get method is the most secure way of submitting data. Yes or No? Reason.

Ans: No. It is not the most secure way to send data as it will be visible in the URL.

3. How are label and input connected?

Ans: They are connected by value.

4. Does placeholder get submitted to the server?

Ans: Yes, it is shown only when the field has not value assigned to it.

5. How would you make an input required?

Ans: It has to go under input `<input type="text" name="whatever" required>`

6. How would you make an input read-only?

Ans: You must type in readonly.

7. What tag is used to create groups in a select list?

Ans: You would use `<optgroup></optgroup>`.

8. What is the difference between radio buttons and check-boxes?

Ans: In a checkbox grouping you can choose many more options. Each checkbox is independent so you can check all the boxes. With the radio buttons you can click only one at a time.

9. What tag is used to create summary input?

Ans: `<summary></summary>`

10. The form is no use without which element?

Ans: The form will not work if you don't have a submit button.