

Q/A for Assg-2

1. Three examples of block level elements are: <dd></dd>, <figcaption></figcaption> and <table></table>.
2. Three examples of in-line elements are: , <abbr> and .
3. The tag <tr> is used to create a table row.
4. The element is used when creating any list in html.
5. The attribute id is used for unique identification of an element.
6. The class attribute is used for group identification of an element.
7. You must start an html entity with a less than sign and end it with a semi-colon and a greater than sign.
8. Src, href, align are called frames or iframes in html.
9. The easiest way to identify HTML5 is <!DOCTYPE html>.
10. The most important tag for search engine optimization is the use of the meta tag.